Poetično telo nadaljuje raziskovanje teme iz Prometeja, mita o stvarniku človeka iz gline, ki mu je prinesel ogenj – simbol zavesti, ustvarjalnosti in notranje luči. Tokrat pozornost ni na uporu proti bogovom, temveč na posledicah tega daru: umetnosti, kulturi in človekovem notranjem razvoju. Prometejev ogenj človeka spremeni v poetično telo – bitje, ki misli, čuti in ustvarja. Plesno telo postane nosilec arhaičnega spomina in sodobnega iskanja smisla ter lepote bivanja.

Uprizoritev je dialog med tremi koreografskimi poetikami – MN Dance Company in dvema gostujočima koreografoma. Skupaj ustvarjajo večplasten svet, ki prepleta mit, telo in gib ter skozi ples kot poezijo telesa raziskuje meje med telesom in duhom, med notranjimi svetovi in kolektivno mitologijo.

The Poetic Body continues to explore the theme of Prometheus, the creator of humans from clay who brought them fire – a symbol of consciousness, creativity, and inner light. This time, the focus shifts from rebellion against the gods to the consequences of this gift: art, culture, and human inner development. Prometheus's fire transformed humans into poetic bodies – beings that think, feel, and create. The dancing body becomes a carrier of archaic memory and a modern quest for meaning and the beauty of existence.

The performance is a dialogue between three choreographic poetics – MN Dance Company and two guest choreographers. Together, they create a multi-layered world that intertwines the myth, body, and movement, bound to the search for depth, artistic integrity, and dance poetry, exploring the border between the body and the spirit, between inner worlds and collective mythology.
